MEMORANDUM

VASQUEZ, Judge: Complainant, a pro se litigant, has filed a complaint of judicial conduct against a judge of the United States Tax Court. For the following reasons, the complaint will be dismissed.

Complainant broadly asserts that filings in the underlying Tax Court case were dismissed without due process and that one judge should have been assigned to handle the case. These allegations relate directly to the merits of the judge's rulings and must be dismissed. USTC Rules for Judicial Conduct, Rules 3(i)(3)(A) and 11(c)(1)(B).

Complainant also alleges that there were delayed and erroneous mailings from the Tax Court in the underlying case. The record in that case shows that a certified mailing sent to complainant at the address of record was returned to the Tax Court by the U.S. Postal Service. The document was remailed to complainant by regular mail and was not returned. The record does not show any error by the Tax Court nor was complainant prejudiced. To the extent complainant raises allegations against court personnel, such allegations are dismissed because this judicial misconduct procedure only applies to judges of the Tax Court. USTC Rules for Judicial Conduct, Rule 4.
